Halsey Burgund hosts a CD celebration Friday.

This week

■ Aesthetic Evidence, the solo music project of drummer Halsey Burgund, hosts a "Bring Your Own Voice" CD-release party at 8 p.m. Friday at Casco Bay Books, 151 Middle St., Portland. Aesthetic Evidence's CD, "Words and Voices," combines Halsey's music with words that are spoken and recorded in non-musical contexts. People who show up for Friday's gathering will have their voices recorded for a future Aesthetic Evidence CD. Halsey will set up a portable recording booth in the bookstore and ask people who are interested to read for him. Maine photographer Tonja Alexia Hollander shot the visual images for the CD.
